

Lawrence J. Clark: Musician, Singer-Songwriter, Worship Leader, Public Speaker

Lawrence J. Clark, who claims he will be 29 forever, was baptized in September 1980.

God has blessed Lawrence with the gifts and talents of music, teaching and leadership. Within his church, he has supported the singles, youth, music and drama ministries. Lawrence has a great desire to spread the Good News and seeks opportunities outside the church to reach those who have not yet heard. He was in missionary service in 1982 and again during 1987-1988. Lawrence has also led Bible studies at colleges and performed at school assembly programs. Writing songs, leading worship at various events and working on special music is also how Lawrence likes to spend his time.

Currently, Lawrence is a professor of writing and English at Houston Baptist University, and is a member of Metropolitan Baptist Church in Northwest Houston. He enjoys listening to and playing music, camping, reading and writing. In addition to his work with His Witness Ministries, Lawrence also performs regularly as The Singing Poet Guy in public schools, libraries, and community centers across the country.

His favorite verse is Joshua 1:9, "Have I not commanded you? Be strong and courageous. Do not be terrified; do not be discouraged, for the LORD your God will be with you wherever you go."
